DULLES DISTRICT SUPERVISOR STEPHEN J. SNOW ANNOUNCES 1st DISTRICT WIDE COMMUNITY MEETING.

Supervisor Snow will be hosting his first community meeting at Little River Elementary School on May 26th at 7pm. The purpose of the meeting is to allow constituents to hear from Supervisor Snow about several key issues and to give Supervisor Snow the opportunity to hear from his constituents. To help facilitate discussion, Mr. Snow has invited his appointees to the boards and commissions. Some of the appointees include, Carol Kost (Chair, Advisory Commission on Youth), Jim Bonfils (Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee), Charlotte Nurge, (Commission on Aging), Larry Beerman (Chair, Planning Commission) and Bob Boscoe (Facilities Standards Manual Public Review Committee). Mr. Snow, in conjunction with his appointees, will be discussing the Loudoun Youth Initiative, senior programs and the proposed senior center, Supervisor Snow's plans for a recreation center and library and the CPAM regarding healthcare in Loudoun County. Mr. Snow is looking forward to this event and hopes to see everyone there.
